Iowa Gives a Glorious Democratic Victory.

OHIO IS TRUE AS STEEL

Boss Mahone Growling in Virginia.

BUT WHO CARES FOR "DILLY" NOW?

The news is so good that its effects are staggering!

No sooner was the democratic victory in Ohio made certain than interest shifted to Iowa.

And there the democrats were hopping mad.

They had carried the state ticket by seven thousand majority, and then awoke to the fact that they had lost the legislature, with a United States senatorship, by three votes.

So hopeless did they regard their campaign that they failed to fight for the legislature, and yet missed it only by a scratch.

The CONSTITUTION's special correspondents at the various state capitals tell the story fully.

THIS IS FROM IOWA.

And I so good that the headlines in full of enthusiasm.

DES MOINES, Ia., November 6.—To The Constitution: The democrats of Iowa have been jubilant all day, but tonight they are fighting mad.

They are kicking themselves and kicking each other not because of what they have done, but of what they did not do.

They have carried the entire state ticket by 7,000 majority.

THE VOTE FOR HORACE BOIES may exceed that figure, but there is little indication that it will fall below 8,000. Some of the candidates will run slightly behind Boies, but each of them is safely and surely elected.

On December 4th, 1884, Stephen Hempstead held the vest of James W. Grimes, at the inauguration of the latter, in the old capitol building at Iowa City. Hempstead was the last of a line of democratic governors, extending from the time Iowa was organized as a territory, in 1838, to 1884. From the latter date the series of republican successors has been unbroken, with the solitary exception of last year, when Peter A. Dey, a democrat, was elected railroad commissioner by about 1,000.

The balance of the republican state ticket being chosen by the legislature, the republicans were not strictly drawn in that contest, but were in this, so that the result of yesterday is really the first democratic officer the state has seen since 1854, a period of thirty-five years. They have now a taste of victory after their long fast.

WHY THE DEMOCRATS ARE MAD.

What the democrats are dissatisfied about is that they didn't capture the legislature. When the democrats, several years ago, after the republicans had espoused the cause of prohibition, had begun to show signs of robust health, threatening the capture of the governorship and the legislature, the republicans perpetrated a scheme of gerrymandering that would put to shame the most brilliant manipulators. The democrats regarded the legislative contest as simply hopeless, and no special effort was made to capture it, or even to make gains therein. The returns show a great many close districts which have been captured by three of them being in this county, where the republicans pulled through with from 40 to 100 majority. The democratic committee did not even have a list of the legislative nominees, and no attention was paid to this campaign. The result, under such circumstances, is simply startling.

THEY ARE MAD.

FOR THE INFLUENCE IN THE STATE OF THE SOUTH CAROLINA ARTISTS; and fixed, as they supposed, the legislature forever safely to be for the republicans, the landslide of yesterday shows that they needed every precaution. Districts supposed to have been strongly republican, succumbed to the democratic hosts. Until tonight the republican state committee only claim the legislature by a majority on joint ballot, and are quaking in their boots lest that, too, will be wiped out, and Allison will be left alone.

THIS IS WHAT MAKES THE DEMOCRATS MAD.

Had the returns tonight, Iowa would have sent a democrat to the United States senate. No effort was made to capture the legislature on the part of the democrats. If he pulls through all it will be owing to the fact that the democratic managers deemed any effort to defeat him a hopeless one. But that the democratic senator does not feel that he is perfectly safe, is shown by the fact that he has been in constant communication with Chairman Pray since his political sky began to be clouded with the prospect of defeat.

SUCH RUMORS ARE GROUNDSLESS.

There is absolutely nothing upon which to base them.

At 8 o'clock this evening, returns complete from seventy-six counties, and the remaining thirteen estimated as having voted as they did two years ago, show the election of Boies and the entire state ticket by 7,000. There is no reason to doubt that these thirteen counties will not show gains proportionate with the sixty-six heard from. If they do, the majority will be increased probably to 10,000. Nothing can be surer than the complete and overwhelming success of the democracy of Iowa in Tuesday's election.

The causes leading to the result are not difficult to locate. Prohibition is the chief one. The revolt of the Farmers' Alliance against the alleged railroad record of Hutchinson is another. The tariff has not been without its effect. The low prices of farm products has had an influence. There was a combination of circumstances all tending to work.

AGAINST THE PARTY IN POWER.

In the cities large gains were made upon the prohibition question. Cedar Rapids, Dubuque and Sioux City showed democratic gains over 1,000 each. In Keokuk, Burlington, Davenport, Clinton, Des Moines and Council Bluffs the gains are almost as great. In northwestern Iowa, among the granger counties, the percentage of gains held up close to those of the cities. The majority of the republicans is the responsibility of defeat to prohibition, and openly declare that they will advocate the adoption of high license by the new legislature. This will irritate the prohibitionists and stimulate the third party advocates to marshal their forces and threaten the party from another quarter. To pursue their theory of prohibition further, will consign them to certain disaster from another quarter. Thus the republican party, after an uninterrupted rule of thirty-five years, finds itself defeated, disheartened and confronted with obstacles of so serious a nature that it is doubtful, indeed, if it recovers in time to save the electoral vote of the state in '92.

H. C. SHAVER.

FROM GOVERNOR-ELECT BOIES.

WATERLOO, Iowa, November 6.—[To The Constitution.]—Thanks for your congratulations.

Iowa is in the democratic column now to state.

The republicans have met their Waterloo.

HORACE BOIES.

MAY GET THE LEGISLATURE.

The Dubuque Herald (democratic) has returns from sixty-seven counties in the state. These give Boies a plurality of 13,000.

The remaining thirty-two counties in 1887 gave a republican plurality of 11,288. On the basis of these returns, Boies will have a plurality in the eighty-seven counties, so that all gains in the remaining thirty-two counties will simply add to his plurality. If the same ratio of democratic gains continues throughout the thirty-two counties, Boies will have a plurality in the state of 8,000 to 10,000. It is now impossible to defeat him and his plurality is only a question of gains in the remaining one-third of the state. So far there is not a republican county or two exceptions, but what shows a democratic gain. In the counties so far heard from there is an average gain of 575 to each. The majority of Boies runs up to more than 6,000. He is almost certain to take the balance of the ticket with him. Dubuque county in full gives 4,235 majority for Boies, and all gains on the democratic local ticket is elected.

Senator Allison is now badly frightened lest the legislature may also be lost.

The Dubuque Herald, democrat, has returns from one half of the counties in Iowa, and they figure up 12,000 majority for Boies, democratic candidate for governor. The other counties will reduce this somewhat, so that it is probable that his majority will run 5,000 to 8,000.

Full returns from ninety-five counties, and the remaining four counties estimated the same as two years ago, show that Boies, democrat, has 5,956 plurality. Official returns will undoubtedly increase this majority to about 7,000. The entire state ticket, lieutenant governor, justice of the supreme court, superintendent of public instruction and railway commissioner, is elected, and the republicans claim the legislature by eight majority on joint ballot, but the democrats do not concede more than three.

The State Register (republican) says: Returns from every legislative district show that the next legislature will stand: Senate—republicans 28, democrats 22; house—republicans 92, democrats 47.

CAMPBELL IS CERTAINLY THERE.

His Plurality Will Not Be Less Than Ten Thousand.

COLUMBUS, O., November 6.—To The Constitution: Ohio is democratic.

The party of the people has captured the entire state ticket, and has a working majority in both legislative branches, the senate by two and the house by nine.

From all over the state comes news of rejoicing. Third termism can get no foothold in Ohio.

Foraker, the defeated candidate for governor, today sent a telegram of congratulation to the man from Butler, who vanquished him. He does it in a simple way, however, with the least bit of sarcasm perceptible. Mr. Campbell is resting complacently at his home at Hamilton, although he is overwhelmed with messages of congratulation from all over the country. His plurality will not be less than ten thousand, although the remainder of the state ticket will not receive more than one-half that plurality. The republican state committee

CONCEALS THE ENTIRE TRUTH.

There will be a rousing ratification meeting at Hamilton, the home of Mr. Campbell, tomorrow night, at which will be present many of the most distinguished democrats of the state. Decorations are already at work on Mr. Campbell's residence, fixing it up for the occasion. Clubs from all parts of the state will be on hand, and a glorious time is anticipated. Meetings have also been arranged for other parts of the state. Colonel W. A. Taylor, president of the democratic clubs of Ohio, has sent out a glowing message of thanks for their excellent work in the campaign just closed.

A dispatch from Cincinnati states that the democrats are painting the city red. Processions are moving about the streets and the tooting of horns and the beating of drums make the night hideous. The most unique way of celebrating the success of James E. Campbell was displayed by Allen O. Myers at Cincinnati today. "Pickway" rode down Vine street mounted on one of John Robinson's camels. The animal was gayly attired and the turnout was followed by an immense mob of yelling men and boys. Accompanying him was a wagon, in which an organ had been placed, and a big fat saloon granger grinding out some music.

THE SENATORIAL PROSPECTS.

Little has been said up to the present time, respecting a successor to United States Senator Payne.

There are a number of good and worthy democrats in Ohio who could wear the honor with grace and dignity. Hon. L. T. Neal has some friends who would like to see him succeed to the position, and in some quarters it is hinted that Mr. Campbell himself would not be averse to stepping out of the gubernatorial chair into the United States senate. These reports are vague, however. The party will recover from the shock caused by its brilliant success before it begins to consider the senatorial question, Ohio has upon the centralizing ideas of the republican party, and has shown to the country at large that the voice of the people is still potent against kingly oppression, H. M. SMITH.

CAMPBELL'S PLURALITY PILING UP.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, November 6.—The democratic party has commenced a tallying of the election of Campbell by a plurality of from ten to fifteen thousand, and the rest of the ticket by pluralities ranging from four to eight thousand. At these calculations are reached from meagre returns, and mostly by estimates, but are believed to be reliable within the range of the pluralities which are given. The republican committee has nothing on which they can reliably dispute the figures, further than they do not think the plurality of Campbell has been nearly as large as ten thousand, and that the rest of the state ticket will not be elected by more than two or three thousand plurality.

Both committees and chairmen seem to be agreed that the democrats will carry the legislature in both branches. It is not probable that the figures agreed upon as the result of the election will be changed from that which has already been announced, though in some of the counties they do not have conclusive information as to how the vote has been cast. At most headquarters, the house will stand 51 democrats and 33 republicans, and senate 19 democrats and 17 republicans. This would give the democrats a majority of 10 on joint ballot.

Complete returns from Cleveland and county give Foraker 20,403 votes and Campbell 18,168. Foraker ran from 800 to 1,500 votes in his district. In fact he was elected by republicans in nearly every one of the one hundred precincts in this county. Eight republicans candidates for the general assembly were elected by amply pluralities, and the results in this county, all things considered, met the expectations of Governor Foraker's friends. In northern Ohio the democrats lost and gained votes in spots. In Summit county, of which the flourishing city of Akron is the capital, the republican loss was something like 1,100. AAkron is a manufacturing city and the tariff was made more or less of an issue there. Late this evening the impression prevails here, and it is based on careful returns, that the democrats have a majority of two in the house of representatives and possibly a majority of two in the senate. If the democrats should prove to be the case, a democrat will succeed Henry B. Payne in the senate of the United States. The senatorial election will occur in January, and the democrats will have a republican state when all the republicans voted, yet it has never been represented at Washington by two republican senators. Senator Sherman has already had a democratic colleague, and now Payne, who is a very old man, and who says that he will not be a candidate for re-election, will be followed by another democrat.

CINCINNATI, November 6.—The footings of Hamilton county vote with seven precincts to hear from, give the following results: Foraker 12,704; Campbell 11,887. On the basis of these returns, it is settled that the republican senate is elected—George A. Schneider. The detailed vote shows an almost unbroken falling front for the democrats. Our victory in the people of your work, well done, and an expression of a hope that mine will be. McKinney's Out of one hundred counties in this state, seventy-nine have been heard from. Out of fourteen cities, returns have been received from nine. Every city and county shows a gain for McKinney over the vote of 1887. Thus far the democrats have elected seventy members to the house of delegates and twenty-nine to the senate. Comparison of the last legislature was, house sixty-three democrats, thirty-seven republicans; senate, twenty-six democrats, fourteen republicans. The latest estimate of the vote of the state gives McKinney 30,000 majority.

The people of South Boston, Halifax county, are still excited over the attempted assassination of Hon. R. R. Noblin, a negro who fired upon the party from ambush. Noblin was shot in the eye and Julian Chapin was also shot but not seriously. Three negroes have been arrested and were brought to Augusta tonight for safekeeping.

Augusta, Rockbridge, Rockingham, Allegheny, Bath and Shenandoah counties, the seat of the white election, give McKinney a combined majority of 3,200. These same counties, in 1887, gave Cleveland 616 majority. Frederick county officially gives McKinney 1,298 majority, a gain of 247. Silver, democratic, for the legislature, has 1,193 majority. The republicans have elected twenty-four members to the house of delegates, and five members to the senate, and eleven members of the senate, with two districts to hear from.

MAHONE AND HIS GUN.

The Shooting of Harrison Taken Up in Court.

PETERSBURG, Va., November 6.—Interest in the alleged Mahone shooting case has died away. The case will not come up until the meeting of the hustings court in January. Harrison, the man who was shot, is improving rapidly.

The case against Mahone was heard and the following evidence adduced: The first witness sworn was Charles Romaine, son of a New Yorker, but for many years engaged in business in Petersburg. He testified that he saw General Mahone with a double-barrel breech-loading gun in his hands. One of the gentlemen expressed to General Mahone surprise at his having the gun, and the general said: "Yes, this is my gun."

Said further testified that Mahone said he would kill any one who entered his yard, at the same time clapping his hand on his pocket, and also Harry and Butler, when the witness heard Harrison exclaim that he was shot. Then, in company with friends, he crossed the street, when he was knocked down by a pistol which he was flourishing in his hand. His testimony was corroborated by that of other witnesses.

The evidence of C. E. Burton, corroborated by Romaine, established the fact that Harrison was shot by some person in the front yard of Mahone's house, and that the defendant acted up to the offense.

Cesar Lodell distinctly heard three shots fired from Mahone's yard. He saw Mahone with a gun in his hands.

Myer Saal heard two or three shots fired. "I saw General Mahone with a double-barrel breech-loading gun in his hands. The second gentleman expressed to General Mahone surprise at his having the gun, and the general said: 'Yes, this is my gun.'"

Petersburg demonstrates what the democratic programme has been all over the state. In the sixth ward here, which is overwhelmingly republican, 250 colored men were in line waiting to vote when the polls closed.

The result is that here at home, where I should have a majority of 500, the city gives McKinney a majority of nearly 600."

Mahone will have but little to say further than that his defeat is solely due to fraud.

A TALK WITH THE "BOSS."

General Mahone Utterly Disgusted Over the Result.

PETERSBURG, Va., November 6.—To The Constitution: According to your instructions, I reached this place this afternoon, and have just interviewed General Mahone.

He is very peculiar and sphinx-like, and does not often talk for publication, but he was singularly communicative, as he sat before his big log fire.

"Yes," said he, "I am defeated, but I would have been elected if the democrats had been elected. I am a politician, I will keep on doing so. I am a long time before I get the democrats out of power, but I feel as if I would give a hundred years. I favor a federal election law in congressional elections in the south, and the result of yesterday invites congress to pass the law we need, as early as possible."

The republican kickers amount to nothing, and they will find a cold fire before I give up the leadership of the republican party in Virginia. I would not have the vice-presidency if it were offered to me. There is no patronage connected with the office."

Governor Lee has been flooded with telegrams of congratulations today at the democratic victory in the state. In acknowledging the receipt of such a message from Colonel A. K. McClure, of the Philadelphia Times, General Lee said: "We have had a good victory, and its results extend beyond the present hour."

GOVERNOR-ELECT MCKINNEY.

The Man Who Has Put the Little Rascal to Route.

RICHMOND, Va., November 6.—To The Constitution: Governor-Elect McKinney was almost broken down when the canvass closed, but, after a day's rest, he advises his friends here that he is much improved. He will probably be in Richmond in a few days.

As soon as it became assured last night that McKinney was elected, Governor Lee sent him a characteristic telegram, to which the following response was received today:

"I accept your invitation to call to see you on January 1st next. You should be happier than I. Our victory is an approval by the people of your work, well done, and an expression of a hope that mine will be. McKinney's Out of one hundred counties in this state, seventy-nine have been heard from. Out of fourteen cities, returns have been received from nine. Chattahoochee Bridge Received.

It was a busy meeting, that of the county commissioners yesterday. Sessions were held both in the morning and in the afternoon, lasting till late in the evening.

The meeting was the regular monthly one, and a large amount of business had piled up more than has been disposed of at any one meeting for a long while.

Besides the regular routine, there were a number of important questions before the board. One was the acceptance of bids for the extension of the courthouse, and the other for the building of a bridge across the Chattahoochee river. Another important matter was a modification of the rules governing the office of bailiff of the city court, and to make an increase of salary in that department. There is a vacancy, and these matters were to be settled before an appointment was made.

WHAT WAS DONE.

In the matter of raising the salary of the special bailiff of the city court, no definite action was taken. It was discussed at some length, but the board was in doubt as to the legality of making an increase over the amount prescribed by the constitution, which fixes it at $2 per day. County Attorney Thompson was instructed to look into the matter and report at the next meeting of the board.

Several members opposed the increase, unless the office of special bailiff of the county court was abolished. The county attorney, John M. Davis, is also included.

Judge Howard Van Epps is strongly in favor of increasing the compensation of the bailiff and holding him directly under the commands of the county officials. Judge Van Epps sent a communication to the commissioners fully stating his views on the matter, and recommending that Captain E. F. Couch, who had agreed to accept if the salary was made $100 a month, be appointed. The letter contained some very terse remarks upon the importance of the special bailiff's office, and upon the necessity of a competent and reliable man in that position.

THE CHATTAHOOCHEE BRIDGE.

At 12 o'clock the bids for constructing a bridge over the Chattahoochee river were opened.

Before they were opened Mr. Hunicutt, who has been opposed to the bridge all along, reiterated his objections, arguing that it would increase the burden of the county without producing any revenue whatever.

Dr. H. L. Wilson was also against the building of the bridge, and both he and Mr. Hunicutt voted "no" on a motion to accept a bid and build the bridge.

The lowest bid was that of Mr. W. B. Miller for the Atlanta Bridge and Axle works. It was $13,500, and will be accepted at a called meeting of the board to arrange some necessary preliminaries.

Here are the other bids:

The Croton Bridge company, of Croton, N. Y., bid $14,000.

The Milwaukee Bridge and Iron works bid $13,750.

Atlanta Bridge and Axle company bid $13,850.

Millikin Brothers, of New York, bid $28,750.

Southern Bridge company, of Birmingham, bid $15,200.

Champion Bridge company, of Wilmington, Ohio, bid $15,975.

King Iron Bridge company, of Cleveland, Ohio, bid $13,900.

George H. Crafts, Atlanta, Georgia, bid $13,550.

Youngstown Bridge company, of Youngstown, Ohio, bid $14,200.

Moore & Ballen, of Decatur, Alabama, bid $14,025.

Columbus Bridge company, of Columbus, Ohio, bid $14,000.

Mr. A. V. Gude, Atlanta, bid $24,000.

Mason Bridge company, of Mason, Ohio, bid $14,200.

W. F. Converse, of Chattanooga, bid $13,770.

Pittsburg Bridge company, of Pittsburg, bid $15,000.

THE COURTHOUSE WING.

The new wing to the county courthouse will not be built for a few months yet.

Yesterday was the day set for the reception of bids for building the wing, but the board decided not to let the contract until it had been further advertised. The clerk was instructed to again advertise for bids, to be received and opened at the regular meeting in February next.

It is fully settled that the wing will be built but the board thought it was better to wait longer and spending a little more money in printer's ink, better terms could be secured.

OTHER MATTERS.

Reports on the state of the almshouse and chainage were heard and agreed to. Dr. Boring, the county physician, reported that the health of the prisoners both in the jail and at the camps was good.

A settlement of insolvent tax affairs was made by ex-Tax Collector Boynton. Sheriff Thomas was called before the board and requested to give a receipt for the tax. He had been unable to collect the tax. The sheriff, under the circumstances, declined to make the oath, and that part of the settlement with Mr. Boynton was deferred. Clerk Cooper was instructed to pay over to Mr. Boynton all moneys he had overpaid the county.

The clerk was also instructed to refund sixty dollars to County Attorney Thompson, which he had paid out in costs in carrying a case to the supreme court.

Mr. Garrett, of the committee on roads and bridges, reported adversely on petitions to open a road through Mr. Wash. Collier's property, and to build a bridge over a creek out in the neighborhood of Brookhaven.

A number of district commissioners were present at the meeting with petitions for working the roads in their localities.

Rheumatism and Catarrh. Rheumatism and catarrh are both blood diseases. In many severe cases they have yielded to treatment with B. B. B. (Botanic Blood Balm), made by Blood Balm Co., Atlanta, Ga. Write for book of convincing proofs. Sent free.

R. P. Dodge, Atlanta, Ga., writes: "My wife had catarrh and nothing did her any good. Her constitution finally failed and poison got into her blood. I placed her on a use of B. B. B., and to my surprise her recovery was rapid and complete."

W. F. McDaniel, Atlanta, Ga., writes: "I was much afflicted and had rheumatism so bad I could not get along without crutches. I also had neuralgia in the head. First-class physicians did me no good. Then I tried B. B. B., and its effects were magical. I cheerfully recommend it as a good tonic and quick cure."

Mrs. Matilda Nichols, Knoxville, Tenn., writes: "I had catarrh six years and a most distressing cough, and my eyes were much swollen. Five bottles of B. B. B. thank God cured me."

John M. Davis, Tyler, Texas, writes: "I was subject a number of years to spells of inflammatory rheumatism, which six bottles of B. B. B., thank heaven, has entirely cured. I have not felt the slightest pain since."
